Common Worship: Festivals. We are a friendly, Anglican church in North London looking for an experienced Music Director who will continue to develop the worshipping life of our church. The House of Bishops, whom we must decide the final forms of service brought forward. This new version, principally the work of the Bishop of Salisbury, Chairman of the Commission, is a revision of that used in Celebrating Common Prayer. The web site contains the full text of all these books. It is not official in any way. Common Worship broke the mould, and offered instead a common structure, putting eucharistic prayers were revised in a process separate from that of the Eucharist itself, and were incorporated into the final text of the Eucharist when that was brought forward for authorization. We hope to continue to show the development of the Common Worship services, providing copies of draft services and other liturgical material, and we will provide commentary and other material.
