Woo hoo. When the saint maiden Jeanne of Arc is unfairly accused of witchcraft and burnt at the stake, her lesser, weaker, darker half, Gilles of Rais, loses himself to despair and decides to become the worst of sinners in her. EREN rated it really liked it Nov 02, CommunityReviews. The attraction without hope of Gilles for Jeanne, her purity and her innocence would have consequence for him in making dreadful crimes. Something that might have contributed to that is that at times I felt that the language, especially the dialogue, was stilted.
