The Thunder 6 Max. Although it's possible to win a package without ever being involved in a huge pot, chances are you're going to need to come out on top of multiple coin flips just to keep yourself in enough chips to make it.

Better yet, players may utilize their frequent player points to enter one of them. If you want to be a winner, picking on the weaker and less experienced players is part and parcel of satellite poker strategy. To avoid that fate, and help end things in expedient fashion, it can be helpful to apply constant pressure. You must never bet a dry side pot, especially in the step tournament format. A why and how it lead to deciding to write the book? Satellite events that offer inexpensive entry to major poker tournaments almost seem too good to be true.
