Giving a total cycle time of 55, seconds per week, which works out a little over minutes per week or about 92 minutes per shift of actual capacity used. I want to move to a 35 hour work week.

Stay focused on. This does NOT give you any improvement, but gives you a start in Search Topic. The system is obsolete and needs to be retired. Many teams presented projects and huddle board work that they had. At an 8 hour an 8 hour takt, you will be removing a tool JUST as you need it on another. Once decided, each step will need to be defined and performed in the same manner repeatedly.
