Concepts within the Just War tradition comprised of jus ad bellum and jus in bello. If we acknowledge the vast range and scope of ethical and moral study and contemplation of the resort to and use of armed force, then the terminology and examples used are many and, more often than not, conflicting. My first hypothesis engages with media theory to consider how empathy can develop through surveillance technologies, thereby humanising the supposedly de-humanised victims of drone attacks. This article has also argued for the usefulness of an interdisciplinary approach to studying mediated, high-technology warfare. Metz [orig. Remove From Wishlist Cancel. Gregory, Thomas.
